In Re: LTL MANAGEMENT, LLC,¹ Debtor.	Chapter 11 Case No.: 21-30589 (MBK) Honorable Michael B. Kaplan

APPELLANT TCC I'S STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL AND DESIGNATION OF ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL AS TO JONES DAY RETENTION ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 8009(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Official Committee of Talc Claimants I (“TCC I”) of LTL Management LLC (the “Debtor”), by and through its undersigned counsel, respectfully submits the following statement of issues to be presented on appeal and designation of items for inclusion in the record on appeal in connection with TCC I’s appeal from the Order Authorizing Retention of Jones Day (Dkt. 1855)² (the “Retention Order”) entered by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey.

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it approved Jones Day’s retention as the Debtor’s general bankruptcy counsel under 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) notwithstanding that Jones Day concedes that it formulated, documented, and implemented the 2021 divisional merger under the Texas Business Corporations Act on behalf of, and for the benefit of, the Debtor’s parent company, Johnson & Johnson (“J&J”), which merger was used in tandem with the Debtor's bankruptcy filing in order to isolate specific unwanted tort liabilities in the Debtor, while enabling the initial entities' remaining assets to stay outside of bankruptcy.

² Unless otherwise noted, “Dkt.” refers to the docket in the main bankruptcy case, 21-30589 (MBK).

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it approved Jones Day's retention as the Debtor's general bankruptcy counsel under 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) notwithstanding that: (i) TCC I had identified a facially plausible estate claim against Jones Day arising from and/or related to Jones Day's work in formulating, documenting, and implementing the 2021 divisional merger; and (ii) the Bankruptcy Court failed to rule on the merits of such claim, as required under applicable precedent, before approving Jones Day's retention on a final basis.

3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it approved Jones Day's retention under 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) when the record demonstrated that Jones Day has a continuing attorney-client relationship with non-debtor affiliates with interests clearly adverse to the estates, including that such non-debtor affiliates are targets for substantial estate causes of action.

4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day was not burdened by an actual conflict respecting its engagement by the Debtor notwithstanding that the record amply demonstrated that the Debtor was not a corporate being with any functional independence from J&J, but rather was a special purpose "shell" vehicle created solely to benefit J&J and controlled by persons who were loyal solely to J&J.

5. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day was not burdened by an actual conflict respecting its engagement by the Debtor notwithstanding that Jones Day conceded that it was incapable of investigating or challenging the 2021 divisional merger on behalf of the Debtor's estate.

6. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day's representation of J&J and the pre-divisional merger Johnson & Johnson Consumer, Inc. ("Old JJCI") in connection with the 2021 divisional merger, continuation of that representation through the Debtor, and concurrent representation of J&J, did not create a situation where Jones Day would likely favor the interests of J&J or the post-divisional merger Johnson & Johnson Consumer, Inc. ("New JJCI") over the interests of the Debtor.

7. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day's representation of the Debtor did not violate attorney ethics rules, including ethics rules prohibiting engagements that involve: (i) a concurrent conflict of interest; (ii) interests that are materially adverse to a former client; and (iii) matters on which it is likely that an attorney would be a material fact witness.

8. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day's representation of the Debtor did not adversely affect the integrity of the bankruptcy process.

9. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that it could approve Jones Day's representation of the Debtor as general bankruptcy counsel, notwithstanding the existence of a disqualifying factor and/or conflicts, if the Bankruptcy Court determined that doing so was in the best interests of the bankruptcy estate.

10. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day did not "hold or represent an interest adverse to the estate" and was a "disinterested person."

11. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred and/or abused its discretion when it determined that Jones Day's engagement by the Debtor represented at most a potential conflict that could be adequately addressed through conflicts counsel.

12. TCC I also incorporates by reference the Statements of Issues submitted by any other appellants seeking review of the Retention Order, and the Statement of Issues that TCC I submitted in connection with its appeal of the Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP retention orders (Dkt. 1962).

DESIGNATION OF THE RECORD ON APPEAL

Without waiving any arguments on appeal, TCC I designates each of the following documents from the above-captioned cases for inclusion in the record on appeal (including any exhibit, annex, appendix, addendum, or schedule thereto).³ TCC I reserves the right to supplement this designation and the record on appeals.
